THE CHRISTMAS SCOUT

I came across this story in my files. I think it will start us off on the right foot this Christmas season. I hope you enjoy the article.

In spite of the fun and laughter, 13 yr. old Frank Wilson was not happy. It was true, he had received all the presents he wanted, and he enjoyed the traditional Christmas Eve reunions with relatives for the purpose of exchanging gifts and good wishes but Frank was not happy. This was his first Christmas without his brother, Steve, who during the year, had been killed by a reckless driver. Frank missed his brother and the close companionship they had together. He said good-bye to his relatives, and explained to his parents that he was going out to see a friend. Frank put on his new plaid jacket. It was his FAVORITE gift. He placed the other presents on his new sled, then headed out, hoping to find the leader of his Boy Scout troop. Frank always felt understood by him.

Though rich in wisdom, his leader lived in the Flats, the section of town where most of the poor lived. His Scout leader did odd jobs to help support his family. To Frank's disappointment, he wasn't home. As Frank hiked down the street toward home, he caught glimpses of trees and decorations in many of the small houses. Then, thru one front window, he glimpsed a shabby room with limp stockings hanging over an empty fireplace. A woman was seated nearby....weeping. The stockings reminded him of the way he and his brother had always hung theirs side by side. A sudden thought struck Frank: he had not done his "good deed" for the day. Before the impulse passed, he knocked on the door.

"Yes?" the sad voice of a woman asked. Seeing his sled full of gifts, and assuming he was making a collection, she said, "I have no food or gifts for you. I have nothing for my own children."

That's not why I am here," Frank replied. "Choose whatever presents you would like for your children from the sled."

"O, God bless you!" the amazed woman answered gratefully. She selected some candies, a game, a toy airplane and a puzzle. When she took the Scout flashlight, Frank almost protested.

Finally, the stockings were full. "Won't you tell me your name?" she asked, as Frank was leaving. "Just call me the Christmas Scout," he replied.

The visit left Frank touched, and with an unexpected flicker of joy in his heart. He understood that his sorrow wasn't the only sorry in the world. Then he stopped by another house and then another. Before he left the Flats, he had given away the rest of his gifts. His plaid jacket was gone as well, to a shivering boy. Now, Frank trudged toward home, cold and uneasy. How could he explain to his parents that he had given his presents away?

"Where are your presents son?" asked his father as Frank entered the house.

"I gave them away," he answered in a small voice.

"Frank, how could you be so impulsive?" his mother asked. "How will we explain to the relatives who spent so much time and gave so much love shopping for you?"

His father was firm. "You made your choice, Frank. We cannot afford any more gifts."

With his brother gone, and his family disappointed in him, Frank suddenly felt dreadfully alone. He went to his room thinking of his brother and sobbed himself to sleep.

The next morning, he came downstairs to find his parents listening to Christmas music on the radio. Then the announcer spoke: "Merry Christmas, everyone! The nicest Christmas story we have this morning comes from the Flats. A crippled boy down there has a new sled this morning left at his house by an anonymous teenage boy. Another youngster has a fine plaid jacket, and several families report that their children were made happy last night by gifts from a teenager who simply called himself the 'Christmas Scout'. No one could identify him, but the children of the Flats claim that the Christmas Scout was a personal representative of old Santa Claus himself." Frank felt his father's arms go around his shoulders, and he saw his mother smiling thru her tears. "Why didn't you tell us, son? We didn't understand. We are so proud of you."

In each instance, Frank had given the perfect gift. A representative of Santa, I think not. Frank was a representative of God. He had shown the love those people needed. "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life." The greatest gift we can share with people this, or any Christmas, is Jesus. I pray, this season, that each of you will share the love and forgiveness that can only be experienced through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Thank You Cards

To my church family,

I would like to thank everyone for the prayers that were lifted up for me during my cataract surgery. I am doing well and know the prayers were helpful. I am blessed to have such a caring church family. Blessings to all, Peggy Joyce

*****

Dear Church Family and Staff,

The family of Norman Jacobs thanks you for your kind expression of sympathy. Thank You so much for your prayers, phone calls, cards and support over the past weeks since my loved one went home. Joyce Jacobs

Dear Mission Minded Church Family,

Though we, as a world, are going through some really tough times with COVID-19, you have responded to Operation Christmas Child with an abundance of love and generosity. You helped provide 381 children with the blessings of a shoebox filled with goodies and the gospel message. Thank you for being so generous.. You will share with so many children in so many places. Many of them may have never heard the gospel message. Thank you, thank you, thank you. For those of you who gave financial contributions to help defray the costs of shipping the boxes, thank you so much. I know that some of us cannot get out to shop, so giving money to ship boxes is a wonderful way to be involved in this ministry of spreading the gospel. I want to thank Bobby Harter, Jimmy Joyce, John Mayberry, and Billy and Parker Pinnix for helping take the boxes to the drop off church. It took us less than an hour to get them moved. They had "their system" for moving the boxes and it worked well.

Start looking for sales and preparing for next year. Hopefully we can share with more children next year. Samaritan's Purse is a year round operation.

As part of the J dollar collection, those of us saving the dollars gave $500 to God's Pit Crew, bought 2 water filters for families, 1 goat, 4 starter hives of bees, and 8 starter flocks of baby chicks through Samaritan's Purse. Those J dollars add up and can be a blessing in so many ways to many people. Thank you to those of you sharp eyed J dollar finders.

May God continue richly blessing you in your ministry. We have much to be grateful for and thank you for sharing your abundance with many others.

W M U News

WMU Ladies, as we prepare to celebrate the birth of our Lord, Jesus Christ, let us remember in our prayers and our giving those who might need an extra help this Christmas Season. We have chosen to help Martinsville-Henry County Christmas Cheer this year. Please bring an unwrapped toy for a child (Ages 2-10) such as, a puzzle, game, truck, ball, doll, jump rope or etc. There is a box at the main entrance on the John Redd Smith side for you to place your gifts in. The box will be picked up on Dec. 11th.

We will not be doing the Lottie Moon Post Office this year. Please do not let that stop you from sending cards to our shut-ins and to members of our church and community who might need encouragement.

Please give to the Lottie Moon Christmas offering. Our missionaries need all they can receive to continue spreading the gospel.

I hope you and your families have a safe and happy time together as we celebrate Jesus' birthday.
